

S+S Regeltechnik GmbH in Nuremberg develops and produces sensors and field devices for building automation and distributes these branded products worldwide in a growing market.

S+S Regeltechnik is part of Bemsig AB, a global group of companies whose goal is to accelerate the path to smart and green buildings as a leading provider of technologies and products for sensing, measuring and connecting.

To support the management team, we are looking to recruit a

Controller (m/f/d)

These tasks are waiting for you:

- Carrying out the monthly and annual group reporting incl. commentary for S+S Regeltechnik and its subsidiary(ies)
- Planning the annual budget (incl. 2 forecasts) together with the management
- Monitoring and analysing deviations
- Monitoring and analysing key figures in compliance with Group guidelines
- Monitoring the timely preparation of the monthly financial statements as well as the
- Preparation of the annual financial statements in cooperation with our tax advisor
- Improving existing and implementing new processes that are necessary to monitoring the business and identifying potential for development are necessary
- Main corporate contact for the parent company in financial matters, in English

Our requirements:

- You have a degree in business administration
- You have several years of professional experience in the relevant areas
- You have good analytical skills and a good understanding of numbers
- You have knowledge of group accounting
- You have experience in international accounting (IFRS)
- You are confident in using MS-Office and ERP systems (ideally MS-Navision).
- You are reliable and accurate
- You must be business fluent in written and spoken English

We offer:

- pleasant working atmosphere, modern workplaces
- reasonable training period and flat hierarchies
- Full-time permanent position with a varied range of tasks

- Internal bonus system and tax-free travel allowance
- free parking directly at the building

Furthermore:

You will be part of a group of innovative and fast-growing companies that offer products in the fields of building automation and mechanical engineering with advanced sensor technology for measurement, control and regulation tasks. The group operates in Europe, North America, the Middle East and Asia and aims to develop the most comprehensive product portfolio in the smart building market, playing its part in sustainability.

Have we aroused your interest?

Then send us your detailed application directly to annett.schulze@spluss.de.